

Almond Riding Club of West Lothian
Sunday 13th September 2020
at Coxhill Livery, Coxhill Farm, Candie, FK2 0BU

At last 2020 is getting started!!!

POLEWORK and SHOW JUMPING Training with CHRISTINE BUCKLE

Approx. start 10.00am in covered arena

All levels welcome Poles – Cross Poles – Jumping 50cm upwards

1 Hour lessons 3 horses max

Entry fee mem £25 non mem £30

Delighted to welcome Christine to our team of Almond trainers. Christine Buckle is a professional rider and co-owner of Camilty Equestrian, a backing & schooling yard. She has produced up to 3* / advanced eventing as well as county level working hunter and competed at the RHS in both workers and young horse classes.

Riding a wide variety of horses and ponies specialising in young quirky and 'problem' horses, Christine's broad experience under saddle allows her to have an empathetic and insightful approach to teaching which resonates with all ages and abilities.

PVG reg. Fully insured. First Aid.

COVID security measures

- Maintaining social distancing of 2m at all times
- Use of Hand sanitizer
- Lesson groups restricted to max of 3 horses
- Max of 1 helper allowed per horse to assist rider get ready
- Helper details must be supplied online to meet Scot Gov. Track & Trace requirements
- No spectators
- Club will allocate official helper to handle jump equipment
- When finished lesson please load up and leave venue