

Extending What Horses Have to Offer
A Look at Equine Facilitated Learning
With Jennifer Dixon-Clegg
Monday 20 January 2020 10am to 4pm

The British
Horse
Society
Scotland

Valentin's Education Farm, Home Farm, Dumfries House Estate, Cumnock, KA18 2LP

This Training Day will also be an opportunity for you to raise issues over challenging situations in daily teaching and coaching and to discuss different approaches and solutions.

All welcome, counts as CPD for BHS Accredited Professional Coaches

Programme

- 10am: What do equines offer people? How are they relevant in your community?
Exploring Equine Facilitated Learning (EFL). What it is? Who benefits? How?
Who is qualified to deliver EFL? Is there a qualification in this field of work?
- 11am: A practical view of transferrable skills
- 12 noon: Ask questions, share situations and to consider new opportunities
- 12.30pm: Your skills with a new focus - thinking on two tracks with allied professionals and other specialists
- 1pm: Lunch
- 1.30pm: Working with groups
- 2.30pm: Thinking along new lines? Where to go for further help/ training: developing EFL.
- 3.30pm: Lee Valentine - Experience from Equitots Lanarkshire CIC and the delivery of BHS Changing Lives Through Horses Programme
- 3.50pm: Final questions and discussion
- 4pm: Close.

About Jennifer Dixon-Clegg

Jennifer was formerly the Director of the Fortune Centre of Riding Therapy and Vice President of Horses in Education and Therapy International (HETI); Jennifer is now a BHS Changing Lives Through Horses (CLTH) Programme trainer.

All bookings are online at <https://clubentries.com/BHSscotland/>

BHS Accredited Professional Coaches: £30

Others: £40

Includes tea/coffee and lunch.