A balanced diet is essential to your horse's wellbeing, making feeding one of the most important aspects of stable management. However, with an extensive and ever-expanding choice of feedstuffs available, how do we choose what to feed?

Join us live from your lounge (or wherever else you can get online!) for this informative talk covering various aspects of equine nutrition.

The presentation begins at 19:00 and will be followed by a Q&A session.

Tickets are £5 per person plus 75p booking fee via:
